

Black Women, Gender & Families A Black Women's Studies Journal

Dear Guest Editor:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Guest Editor for Black Women, Gender and Families (BWGF). BWGF emphasizes the study of Black women, gender, families, and communities. The journal welcomes research and theoretical submissions in history, sociology, anthropology, social psychology, education, economics, political science, and English which are framed by Black Women's Studies perspectives and a policy or social analysis.

Interdisciplinary, comparative, and transnational studies of the African Diaspora and other women, families, and communities of color are also encouraged. To initiate the development of a guest-edited issue BWGF asks prospective guest-editors to provide a prospectus of the proposed issue. The guidelines for this proposal are below:

- A cover letter that briefly discusses the issue's theme and how it relates to the mission of BWGF.
- Provide a list of contributing authors and their respective affiliations.
- Include abstracts for each proposed manuscript. Each abstract must be 500 words or less.
- Estimate the time frame for completion of the issue.

Again, thank you for your interest. Please feel free to contact the editor if you have any further questions.

Sincerely,

Jennifer F. Hamer
